

To Our Guests

Thank you for joining us in worship today - we are so glad you came. During the service a small black notebook will be passed down each row of seats. Please write your information in the book so we can have a record of your attendance. We are delighted you have chosen First Baptist as your place of worship today. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

First Baptist Church Kids

The presence of children in worship is to be celebrated and is always welcome!

Nursery:

A nursery is located in the children's hall and is available during every worship service for children from birth through three years of age.

Younger Children in the Worship Service:

During worship, the Pastor will invite the children to come forward for the children's sermon. At the 11:00 service, children age four (by August) through second grade will be led by the Children's Minister to worship in Children's Church. Parents pick up their children from Children's Church room; ask an Usher or Staff Member if directions are needed.

Helping Children Learn to Worship:

Please participate in all aspects of worship; children learn by watching and doing what others do! Assist children who remain in the sanctuary for worship in the following ways:

- Try to sit toward the front, where it's easier for children to see & hear.
- Pray together.
- Voice the responses as indicated in the worship guide.
- Sing the hymns (showing them how to follow along in the hymnal).
- Follow along with the scripture reading, using pew Bibles.
- Allow them to help pass the offering plate down their row

Theme: A Look at Beloved Hymns

Meditation

*Pick up a lump of clay and mold it in your hands Think about the creation of the world—
the touch of God's hands on the very substance of the universe.
As you change the appearance of the clay with the touch of your hands, think how the world you live in has touched and changed you...
Think of how your hands have touched other people -- in love, in anger, in sorrow and in joy...
Think of the things and people who have touched your life and molded you into the person you are today...*

The Lord's Prayer Lexi Schuchman

*Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.*

Musical Offering
8:30 a.m. only "Jesus Paid it All" arr. Eernisse
Dr. Glenn Eernisse, trombonist

11:00 a.m. only "Bread of the World" Pethel
Sanctuary Choir

Bread of the world in mercy broken, wine of the world in mercy shed by whom the words of life were spoken and in whose death our sins are dead. Look on the heart by sorrow broken, look on the tears by sinners shed. Now be this time to us the token that by Thy grace our souls are fed. Renew Thy Spirit deep within us, that we may serve with purer hearts. Make each voice of praise more glorious, let each one strive to do their part. Increase our heart's desire to serve You, Lord, as Jesus' love within us grows. May all of us be made to praise You, Lord, let holy love and kindness flow. (repeat) Give us Lord the living bread.

The Lord's Supper

Communion at First Baptist is open to all believers.

The bread and juice are gluten free.

Profession and Dedication

Now is the time for all worshippers to voice their response to the message. All desiring to publicly become members of the church should walk to the steps down front, where a pastor will meet and assist you during this hymn.
