

The flowers gracing the sanctuary this morning were given by Jill Entrekin and her daughters in loving memory of Dana Entrekin whose Celebration of Life service was held yesterday.

After thoughtful review of the current COVID protocols, church leadership has decided that wearing a mask while at church is optional. We encourage those who want to wear a mask to do so.

To Our Guests

Thank you for joining us in worship – we are so glad you came. We are delighted you have chosen First Baptist as your place of worship today. We encourage you to visit us online at fbcc.us to learn more about First Baptist.

We'd like the opportunity to thank you for your visit. Scan this QR code with your phone to fill out a quick form. This won't obligate you to anything. We won't ask you to stand in worship or sign you up for a random email list. One of our ministers will reach out once in thanks and then further communication is totally up to you.

First Baptist Church Kids

The presence of children in worship is to be celebrated. As Jesus said, "Let the little children come..." We know that means they will come with noises and wiggles and giggles and questions. We welcome ALL the things that come along with having children in worship.

Children learn by watching and doing what others do, so let them participate in all aspects of worship. Here are some suggestions that will help you worship together as a family:

- Talk about church before Sunday. Tell your children how the adult worship service is different from children's church.
- Grab a children's worship bag. The activities in this bag go along with the scripture focus for worship. Let your child do these activities while listening to the sermon.
- Avoid screen time during worship. This will enable your child to more fully engage in worship and sets an example of focusing on God during this time.
- Make sure your child brings their Bible. After you sit down in your seat, find the scripture focus for the day and mark it in your child's Bible.

Children ages 4 through 2nd grade are invited to join Mrs. Jennifer in Children's Church after the children's sermon. If you need to feed or change your child during worship, a changing table and sitting area is located in the Dixie Street sanctuary entrance.

Meditation

Trust does not eliminate the bad things that may happen, whatever sparked our fear in the first place. Trust simply finds a new outlet for anxiety and a new grounding for confidence: God. Let God worry about the worrisome details of life, most of which are out of my control anyway.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. MUSICAL OFFERINGSanctuary Choir

“Sweeter As the Years Go By” arr. Eernisse
Sweeter as the years go by, sweeter as the years go by; richer, fuller, deeper, Jesus’ love is sweeter, sweeter as the years go by. Of Jesus’ love that sought me when I was lost in sin, of wondrous grace that brought me back to His fold again; of heights and depths of mercy far deeper than the sea, and higher than the heavens, my theme shall ever be. (Chorus repeats) He trod in old Judea life’s pathway long ago; the people thronged about Him, His saving grace to know; He healed the broken hearted and caused the blind to see; and still His great heart yearneth in love for even me. (Chorus repeats) “Twas wondrous love which led Him for us to suffer loss; to bear without a murmur the anguish of the cross. With saints redeemed in glory let us our voices raise, till heaven and earth reecho with our Redeemer’s praise. (Chorus repeats)
