To Our Guests

Thank you for joining us in worship – we are so glad you came. We are delighted you have chosen First Baptist as your place of worship today. We encourage you to visit us online at fbcc.us to learn more about First Baptist.

We'd like the opportunity to thank you for your visit. Scan this QR code with your phone to fill out a quick form. This won't obligate you to anything. We won't ask you to stand in worship or sign you up for a random email list. One of our ministers will reach out once in thanks and then further communication is totally up to you.

First Baptist Church Kids

The presence of children in worship is to be celebrated. As Jesus said, "Let the little children come..." We know that means they will come with noises and wiggles and giggles and questions. We welcome ALL the things that come along with having children in worship.

Children learn by watching and doing what others do, so let them participate in all aspects of worship. Here are some suggestions that will help you worship together as a family:

- Talk about church before Sunday. Tell your children how the adult worship service is different from children's church.
- Grab a children's worship bag. The activities in this bag go along with the scripture focus for worship. Let your child do these activities while listening to the sermon.
- Avoid screen time during worship. This will enable your child to more fully engage in worship and sets an example of focusing on God during this time.
- Make sure your child brings their Bible. After you sit down in your seat, find the scripture focus for the day and mark it in your child's Bible.

Children ages 4 through 2nd grade are invited to join Mrs. Jennifer in Children's Church after the children's sermon. If you need to feed or change your child during worship, a changing table and sitting area is located in the Dixie Street sanctuary entrance.

Meditation

Consider that nothing but virtue and devotion can satisfy your soul in this world. Behold how beautiful they are.

Draw a comparison between the virtues and their contrary vices. How sweet is patience when compared with revenge...meekness, compared with anger...humility, compared with arrogance...generosity, compared with greed...charity, compared with envy... Virtues have this admirable quality, that they delight the soul...whereas vices leave the soul infinitely weary and distraught. Courage, then! Why do we not strive to gain such pleasures?

CHILDREN’S SERMONRev. Jennifer Jindrich

LITANY Laura Eady

Leader: God, bless those who are in poor spirit, who feel empty inside and who dread the day.

All: God, bless those who mourn and grieve, who ache with loss for someone so much loved.

Leader: God, bless all who are merciful, who have learned to forgive even those who hurt them deeply.

All: God, so rich in blessings for your children, we rejoice in your promises and in your boundless and transforming grace.

PASTORAL PRAYERDr. Joel Snider

THE LORD’S PRAYERCullen Smith

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

“They’ll Know We Are Christians By Our Love”

arr. Wilson

We are in one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord.

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord, and we pray that all unity may one day be restored. And they’ll know we are Christians by our love, by our love. Yes, they’ll know we are Christians by our love.

We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand. We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand, and together we’ll spread the news that God is in our land. And they’ll know we are Christians by our love, by our love. Yes, they’ll know we are Christians by our love.

We will work with each other, we will work side by side. We will work with each other, we will work side by side, and we’ll guard each one’s dignity and save each one’s pride. And they’ll know we are Christians by our love, by our love. Yes, they’ll know we are Christians by our love.

All praise to the Father, from whom all blessings come. And all praise to Christ Jesus, His only Son. And all praise to the Spirit, who makes us one. And they’ll know we are Christians by our love, by our love. Yes, they’ll know we are Christians by our love.
